

St. Helen's School,

Dunham, Que.

Jan. 26-19

Dear

A mild form of the influenza is going through the school. A number of the pupils are down with it. Fortunately, there are no severe cases and no complications at all. We have plenty of nurses and attendants. Notification will be sent at once if any one is seriously ill. It would help very much if parents would not telephonemore than is absolutely necessary.