MILLS AT COWANSVILLE, QUE.

BRUCK SILK MILLS LIMITED

PLEASE DIRECT REPLY TO

Cowansville, Que.,
May 9th, 1931.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:-

ALL PRICES SUBJECT TO CHANGE WITHOUT NOTICE. ALL QUOTATIONS, AGREEMENTS AND SALES ARE MADE WITHOUT LIABILITY TO THIS COMPANY FOR DAMAGE ARISING FROM DELAYS OF CARRIERS, STRIKES, UNAVOIDABLE ACCIDENTS, AND OTHER CAUSES NOT FULLY WITHIN OUR CONTROL, AND ARE SUBJECT TO TARIFF CHANGES.

Miss Doris Bridgette, to whom this letter of reference is issued, has been on our office staff since January 1924, occupying the positions of paying clerk and customs clerk.

Miss Bridgette performed her duties always to the best satisfaction of the office manager. She had in charge work of a responsible and particular nature for which being painstaking and careful she is eminently fitted. Miss Bridgette further attended to the many sided routine duties of a factory office, such as the orders and bills payable department, pay roll, etc. She had the custody of cash funds and enjoyed our entire confidence. She possesses extensive experience in dealing with the customs and is familiar with the intricate requirements of such work.

Miss Bridgette is released with regret because of general reduction of staff and is accompanied by the best wishes of

BRUCK SILK MILLS, Limited,

(SGD) L. Schildkraut Lee,

Manager.
